CUNY College Costume Design Workshop Instructor September 2014-May 2015

- I curated workshops for students with a fundamental excitement and interest in theater. These workshops ranged from costume process, fashion meets theater design, textiles, and communicating in theater.

Boston University TA for Design Courses September 2007-May 2009

- During my MFA, I was a TA for two years of the three I was in school. During this I was teaching assistant for the Intro to design class.

- Duties included grading exams, critiquing design work, running the day to day of the lab class, answering questions regarding the class.

Educational Diversity and Inclusion Certification

Leadership for Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion in Higher Education Certification

- -University of Michigan- Winter 2020 – Ability to analyze and understand historic narratives and structures within Higher education that were built to keep Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion out and how to enact transformational leadership to combat these and change the narrative. The Certification also taught how to analyze the strategic diversity planning process and implement it within various levels of education. It also taught how to recommend innovations and opportunities for transformational change at various levels of the ecological model using the strategic diversity planning process as a tool.

Inclusive Design for Online Education Certification

- University of Colorado Boulder- Winter 2020 - This certification provided instruction and strategies in developing courses that are inclusive to students with a wide range of abilities, particularly students with disabilities. Creating effective practices to increase inclusion and avoid some of the common accessibility issues that can arise in an online course. This included such things as course organization, the accessibility of Microsoft Office and PDF documents, making course instruction pages accessible, captioning of videos, making images accessible, and designing for learning differences.
